

INTERDISCIPLINARY GRADUATE SCHOOL

SOLVING GLOBAL CHALLENGES THE INTERDISCIPLINARY WAY

IGS DEVELOPMENT SERIES (IGS-DS)
WED | 10AM - 11AM | IGS SEMINAR ROOM

20
JAN

MANAGERIAL COMMUNICATION

- > MAINTAINING HARMONIOUS RELATIONSHIPS
- > UNDERSTANDING DIVERSITY AND UNITY

24
FEB

ETHICS AND VALUES

- > FORMING YOUR PERSONAL VALUES
- > WHAT IS SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY & ETHICAL LEADERSHIP?

30
MAR

MANAGERIAL MOTIVATION

- > DEVELOPING A MAD (MAKE A DIFFERENCE) MINDSET
- > WHY I DO WHAT I DO (PURPOSE BEHIND THE PURPOSE)

27
APR

THE ART & HEART OF MANAGEMENT

- > UNDERSTANDING PROCESS OF CHANGE
- > BEING A CATALYST IN CORPORATE & PERSONAL SITUATIONS

About Dr Andrew Goh

Dr Andrew Goh is an international platform speaker known for being insightful yet simple, witty yet packing a punch. He has written seven books including "Management by Humour", "How to pass the Torch without getting burnt" and "Headstart: A Month of Motivation". He is also a motivational trainer and management consultant working with renowned organizations like Singapore Airlines and the Millennium & Copthorne Hotel chain; leading local & overseas banks; IT companies; and the insurance sector. He has consulted for or spoken to over 150 companies.

He earned his PhD from the Nanyang Technological University (NTU) in HR Personnel Selection in 2000 and his MBA from Australia (1979). His specialization is in Attitudinal Change & Development. Among other voluntary responsibilities, he has served on the Singapore Advisory Council of World Vision International and the Board of Halogen Young Leaders Foundation. He was awarded the Asian Management Fellowship by the Australian Government in 1985.